Make Your Mark–Kirkland Arts Center Program

Students will explore printmaking, clay, and design masks at this new afterschool art program, Make Your Mark. A program specifically designed to support your child's art-making skills in a healthy environment, Make Your Mark encourages kids to decompress after school, and explore feelings through art-making and journaling. At the end of the program, kids will share their experience and their art in a supportive culminating event with family and caregivers.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Welcoming Week

In collaboration with other Eastside cities, nonprofit partners, faith organizations and community groups, the City of Bellevue will host a variety of activities in celebration of Welcoming Week 2018, Sept. 14-23. The events will highlight the City's ongoing commitment to diversity while also recognizing the importance of engaging immigrants, refugees and residents from all cultural backgrounds. Below work is offered in partnership with the Kirkland Arts Center (www.kirklandartscenter.org). Registration for these workshops are handled by Northwest Arts Center at register.bellevuewa.gov or call 425-452-4106.

Brazilian Drumming Workshop

Create rhythms in an intuitive, spontaneous way. Brazilian instruments will be available as well as buckets, plastic oil pans and anything that can make sound. Learn to play traditional and contemporary Brazilian grooves and explore your own creativity. Enjoy playing as an ensemble with an instructor who has performed for celebrities such as Nelson Mandela, Paul Simon, Pope John II and the 14th Dalai Lama!
